THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

THE VICTOR SORGO MILL.

Over Five thousand of these Mills have been made and sold in the last three years. The best recommendations can be given.

Also—COOK'S EVAPORATOR, for making Sugar and Molasses, said to be the best in use.

CORN CRUSHERS.

Three different sizes for grinding Corn in the ear, or shelled—or any other kind of grain. This is a machine that every farmer should have, as a bushel of ground feed is equal to a bushel and a half unground. The high price of feed of all kinds makes an imperative demand for some kind of machinery by which to save. It is a rapid grinder and durable.

BELLS FOR CHURCHES,

SCHOOLS, FARM HOUSES, FOUNDRIES, &c. Made of the best steel composition. Church Bells insured for one year.

WILLOUGHBY'S GUM SPRING DRILL,

WITH CROZIER'S GUANO ATTACHMENT. This is considered one of the best Drills now in use. It will distribute any kind of grain evenly, and sow from one bushel up to three to the acre. The Guano Attachment has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is so constructed as not to clog in sowing any kind of Phosphates or Bone Meal. Having sold a number of these machines last season, I cheerfully recommend them to be what they are represented. Persons wishing to buy should make application early as the supply is small and the demand great.

F. F. SMITH'S CAST STEEL PLOUGHS.

First, It is the only Plough yet produced that will invariably scour in any soil.

Second, It is now an established fact that It will last from three to six times longer than any other steel plough in use.

Third, It draws lighter than any other Plough, cutting the same width and depth of furrow.

The different parts of the Plough are cast in moulds, into the exact shape desired for the mould-boards, shares and land-sides, giving the parts most exposed to wear any desired thickness. The shares can be sharpened by any blacksmith. The steel is perfectly malleable and works kindly. Edge tools have been made out of pieces of the plough by blacksmiths all over the country.

Sewing Machines.

THE GROVER & BAKER. —THE BEST IN USE These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch," and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

OLD FOLKS.

"I often think each tottering form
That limps along in life's decline,
Once bore a heart as young, as warm,
As full of idle faults as mine?
And each has had its dreams of joy,
Its own unequalled, pure romance;
Commencing when the blushing boy
First thrilled at lovely woman's glance.

"And each could tell his tale of youth,
Would think its scenes of love evince
More passion, more unearthly truth,
That any tale before or since.
Yes! they could tell of tender lays
At midnight penned in classic shades,
Of days more bright than modern days—
And maids more fair than modern maids.

"Of whispers in a willing ear;
Of kisses on a blushing cheek;
Each kiss, each whisper far too dear
Our modern lips to give or speak;
Of beaming eyes and tresses gay,
Elastic form and noble brow,
And forms that have all passed away,
And left them what we see them now.
And is it thus—is human love
So very light and frail a thing?
And must youth's brightest vision move
Forever on time's restless wing?

"Must all the eyes that now are bright,
And all the lips that told of bliss,
And all the forms so fair to sight,
Hereafter only come to this?
Then what are all earth's treasures worth,
If we at length would lose them thus—
If all we value most on earth
Ere long must fade away from us?"

CAN'T COOK.

It is a sad defect when young ladies are incapable of directing their own servants—shoes without soles, or wristbands without a shirt, are not more useless than one of these. One day shortly after his marriage, a young merchant went home, and seeing no dinner ready, and his wife appearing anxious and confused, asked:

"What is the matter?"

"Nancy went off at ten o'clock this morning," replied his wife, "and the chambermaid knows no more about cooking a dinner than the man in the moon."

"Couldn't she have done it under your direction?" inquired her husband, very coolly.

"Under my direction! I should like to see a dinner cooked under my direction."

"Why so?" asked the husband, in surprise.

"You certainly do not think I could give direction," replied the wife; "how should I know anything about cooking?"

The husband was silent, but his look of astonishment perplexed and worried his wife.

"You look very much surprised," she said, after a moment or two had elapsed.

"And so I am," answered he, "as much surprised as I should be to find the captain of one of my ships unacquainted with navigation. You don't know how to cook, and the mistress of a family! Jane, if there is a cooking school anywhere in the city, go to it and complete your education, for it is deficient in a very important particular."

HINTS ON COOKING.

"Cheap Farmers' Pudding."—In a 2 quart pudding dish or tin basin, put 3 pints of sour apples sliced; cut 3 or 4 ounces of fat salt pork very thin and fry well, and pour the whole over the apples; salt a little, pepper and spice to the taste; mix a batter with sour milk and a little cream, thickened with flour, pour it over the apples and steam an hour; to be eaten with sugar or sauce.—"A Farmer's Wife."

Tapioca Pudding.—3 tablespoonfuls of tapioca soaked over night, 1 quart of milk, the yolks of 3 eggs; boil all together in a farina kettle, or in a tin pail set into a kettle of cold water and boiled; add sugar to your taste. When thoroughly cooked, take the whites of the 3 eggs and beat to a stiff froth, and pour over the whole while hot.—Mrs. L. P. C., New Haven, Mo.

Cracker Mince Pie.—For three pies, take 3 crackers rolled very fine, ½ cup of vinegar, 1 cup of sugar, 1 cup of molasses [or an equivalent of sugar;] sprinkle in all kinds of spice desired; bake in crust the same as an apple pie.—Mrs. L. P. C.

Steamed Apple Pudding.—Make a dough as for biscuit, of 1 pint flour, 1 teaspoonful cream of tartar, ½ teaspoonful salaratus; mix with milk if convenient, or if with water, add a little shortening. Divide into three portions. Then take a pint of apples quartered, and put a layer at the bottom of a pudding boiler, cover them with crust, and put a layer of apples and crust alternately, taking care to have the crust on the top. Steam two hours.—It is very good.—Mrs. L. L. Decker, Manchester, Mass.

Puff Pudding.—3 eggs well beaten, 9 tablespoonfuls of flour, 1 pint of sweet milk; bake in cups in a quick oven; serve with sauce.—Mrs. L. P. C.

Cottage Pudding.—Take 1 quart flour, 2 cups sugar, 6 tablespoonfuls melted butter, 2 cups sweet milk, 2 beaten eggs, 2 teaspoonfuls cream tartar, 1½ teaspoonfuls soda. Mix well and bake or steam in a mold or large tin basin [which should be only part full, as it rises up nearly double.—ED.] Serve with beaten butter and sugar, or wine sauce. What is left from dinner is good for tea cake.—Mrs. H. W. G., Oregon, Illinois.

Wine Sauce.—Stir to a cream, ½ teacupful each of butter and sugar, with the white of an egg. Add ½ cup water, with a very little flour, and boil all together with a cup of wine, or less, according to its kind and strength.—Mrs. H. W. G., Oregon, Illinois.

Bread without Yeast.—(Of Wheat or Rye flour.) 1 quart sour milk, 2 tablespoonfuls lard, 1 teaspoonful each of cream of tartar and soda sifted and well worked into the dry flour. Also use flour enough to mold up well. Let it rise one hour in pans in a warm place, and bake in a quick oven.—H. D., Fairhaven, Conn. [As the lightness is produced by the soda with the combined acid of the cream of tartar and sour milk, which act quickly, we should say the bread would be lighter to bake as soon as mixed; if left awhile, some of the freed gas would escape.—ED.]

Feather Cake.—(Simple and good:) 1 cup white sugar, 1 teaspoonful of butter, 1 egg, 2 even cups sifted flour, ½ cup of milk, 1 teaspoonful cream of tartar, and ½ teaspoonful saleratus or soda. Flavor with essence of lemon.—Mrs. B. V. Foster, South Danvers, Mass.

Choice Miscellany.

MRS. BRENT'S CHRISTMAS.

BY BELLA F. BURTON.

It was the day before Christmas. Mrs. Brent stood at the window, drearily watching the snow fall, as though neither summer's sunshine nor winter's snow could ever more have charms for her. A great sorrow had come to this pale, sad-eyed woman, and changed the glad summer of life into the dreariest winter.

Last Christmas Eve how happy and busy she had been. How impossible it seemed to keep certain articles from prying eyes and little meddlesome fingers till the proper time for displaying them arrived! How little arms went round papa's neck, and red lips whispered close to his ears that he must "teep it se'tret, but maamma had some slippers hided away for him." "T'rismas, and that Santa K'ause, was going to bring her a dolly, 'cause she saw it in the clothes p'ess."

Mrs. Brent thought of these things with an agony words cannot express, for the little pet was done with all earthly things. Months before, when the October leaves were piling the ground with gold and crimson heaps, she had closed her eyes and gone to keep her next Christmas in heaven! There was none left. She was the one pet lamb of the fold, this little three-years-old girl that they had made their idol. Oh, if any who read this are mothers who love their little ones with too tender, too all absorbing a love—think of it in time; set them not up in your hearts before Him who gave them to you, for the time may come when you will waken to the fact that your idol was only clay; beautiful clay, and dear as the casket that held the gem so dear to you—but only clay after all. And you combed out the fair hair for the last time; how often you have wished you could keep it smooth a moment. Poor mother, you can keep it smooth now; the little restless head is forever still. Close the dear eyes whose glance will never make you glad again; fold the little waxen hands that will never "bother" you any more in all time to come. Close the coffin lid, mother, lay your baby in the churchyard, that never seemed so far away and cold as now. Go back to the deserted house that will never be "home" to you again; take up your "burden of life again." You will see happy mothers from time to time who have missed no lamb from their fold—you will hear little voices cry "mother" just as she used, whose lips are now so white and mute in death. All this will be too much for you sometimes, and you will cry out in your agony, but you have learned a lesson—that it is not well to make yourself idols when He has said, "Though shalt have no other gods before me."

Mrs. Brent had been alone all the morning. All of her preparations for the morrow were complete. Her husband was a minister, and she had prepared many gifts for his poor parishioners. As she stood by the window in her bonnet and cloak, a brisk battle was going on in her breast between duty and inclination. Inclination whispered, "Stay at home; go up to the nursery and look over baby's playthings—the things you gave her last Christmas. There is no little stocking to fill to-night. You need not go out." Duty said, "Go out and distribute your gifts. You will then meet your husband with a bright face instead of eyes swolen with weeping. Go."

Duty had almost prevailed; she moved a step forwards, but the patter of little feet in the hall arrested her. She listened with bated breath; little bungling hands turned the knob—how natural it sounded—a little head peeped in, curly and golden, but matted and unkempt; the little hand that held the knob was purple with cold. She advanced unhesitatingly into the room. "Is this heaven?—Is my mamma here?"

Mrs. Brent took one little hand in hers.—"Are you lost, little one? How came so small a child as you, out alone on such a day?"

"No, I'm not lost; I live in that street where the high steps go up. Ole Moll sent me out to beg and I ran up the steps and thought may be they went to heaven. My mamma is there."

Mrs. Brent thought of the little idle garments up stairs, of the pairs of idle shoes and stockings, as she looked at the numb little feet, but her heart rebelled. "No, no," she thought, "my darling's clothes, I cannot give them away."

She took the child to the kitchen and bade Bridget warm her and give her something to eat, then wended her way up stairs. Going into her own room, she took off her cloak and bonnet, then went into the nursery. There had been a fire there that morning, and the room was warm, and had the appearance of being used every day. There was a little chair with a large doll in it, a Noah's ark with part of the animals set up in procession; altogether the room looked as if the little occupant had gone out for an airing instead of lying cold and coffined under the winter snow.

Mrs. Brent took one little garment after another. There were the little home dresses, bright-colored and warm, with the pockets full of little trinkets just as she had left them—then dresses of softer fabric and daintier make. She took out with tender, caressing touch the soft little stockings and dainty little shoes, and with the thought of how busy and tireless the little feet that wore them used to be, how cold and silent now, she bowed her head with an agonized prayer for help in this terrible trial. Peace came after awhile and with her Sleep; and as she slept she dreamed she saw her darling, beautiful beyond expression, in her heavenly happiness. Her heart stood still as the bright vision approached. The words came to her clearly, "Take in the little wanderer in Allie's place, love her as you loved me, keep her for your own." The voice, the glow, the form faded, and Mrs. Brent awoke to a new resolution. It was only a dream, but it taught her a lesson.

She had been selfish in her sorrow, never thinking that while applying balm to the wounds of others she could heal, in a great measure, her own. She gave up and selected a suit of clothes and carried them down stairs. Opening the kitchen door she found the little girl asleep on two chairs, with pillows brought from Bridget's own bed. Bridget herself sat before the fire with her face buried in her apron, sobbing.

"Why, Bridget!" was Mrs. Brent's amazed ejaculation, "what's the matter?"

"Oh, ma'am, she's so like—so like—look at her, ma'am."

Mrs. Brent did look. Bridget had washed the fair little face and combed out the golden hair, but her hands, all unused to such work, were too clumsy to curl it, and it had gathered itself up into little irregular curls around the white temples. Ah, she was "like!"

"Bridget, go up stairs and build a good fire in my room, and leave the nursery door open, and air the blankets on poor little Allie's bed."

"What ever's come over the missus! She spoke so cheery like; and it's the first time I've been allowed to go anigh the nursery."

Something had "come over the missus." She took up the little waif, washed and dressed her without waking her. "Poor little lamb, she is so tired!" then she carried her up stairs herself and laid her on Allie's little crib. Then she gathered up the playthings and put them away, closed the door and went softly down stairs.

When Mr. Brent came home that evening, the little parlor was bright with fire and lamplight. Bridget was singing in a high quavering key in the kitchen, and Mrs. Brent sat by the fire filling a little stocking with toys and sweetmeats.

"Annie, this is wrong—it is sinful to indulge—"

"No, it isn't wrong; you shall see why. —Come up stairs."

So they kept the little wanderer, and years afterwards, when the old house rang with merry childish voices, Mrs. Brent found in this sweet elder daughter an invaluable assistant in her household cares.

USES OF A DEAD DOG.

A San Francisco paper says:—The following will explain why a certain Frenchman is anxious to obtain from the Board of Supervisors a monopoly of all the dogs that may die in San Francisco for the next twenty years.

What use can be made of a dead dog? It can be used for a multitude of useful and luxurious purposes.

Name one. A part of it may be put into a lady's smelling bottle.

Under what form? Either as a delicious perfume or smelling salts.

How can it be converted into perfume? Glycerine is largely used by perfumers for their choicest perfumes.

How is glycerine obtained from a dead dog? By mixing soda with the boilings of the fat and bones.

What does this produce? A sweet substance called glycerine, or the sugar of fat.

How can the putrefying flesh of a dog be turned into smelling salts? Merely by adding to it a little hydrochloric acid.

What further use can be made of a dog? You can wash your hands and face with a part of it.

How so? Part of the glycerine may be used for scenting soap, or made up into glycerine soap.

What other use can a dead dog be put to? A lady going to court may put a little on her cheeks or lips to improve their hue.

How can this be managed? Part of the glycerine may be mixed with carmine, and sold for lip salve or delicate tint for the cheeks.

Name another use that can be made of a dead dog. It may be brought to the table as a delicacy and eaten with much relish.

How can this be done? From the skin, tendons and bones, gelatine can be obtained; and this gelatine can be made into a jelly.

What other delicacy can be made of it? A part of it can be put in our tea and coffee, tarts and pudding.

How can this be done? Sugar may be refined by being strained through its burnt bones.

What else can be done with a dead dog? A gentleman can appear in a part of it at a ball or promenade.

How so? Part of the skin may be made into boots, and part into riding-gloves.

What order was made in Paris about dogs some few years ago? That all dogs without a master should be immediately shot and thrown into the Seine.

How many dogs were so destroyed?—Several thousand.

Who found out that these dead dogs could be turned into money? The refuse pickers.

What did they do with them? They got them out of the river, skinned and boiled them down.

What was done with the skins? They were made into kid gloves.

What was done with the boilings?—They were made into soap and candles.

VOLTAIRE ON MARRIAGE.

Voltaire said:—The more married men you have, the fewer crimes there will be. Marriage renders a man more virtuous and more wise. An unmarried man is but half of a perfect being and it requires the other half to make things right; and it cannot be expected that in this imperfect state he can keep the straight path of rectitude any better than a boat with one oar or bird with one wing can keep a straight course. In nine cases out of ten, where married men become drunkards, or where they commit crimes against the peace of the community, the foundation of these acts was laid in a single state, or where the wife is, as is sometimes the case, an unsuitable match. Marriage changes the current of a man's feelings, and gives him a centre for his thoughts, his affections and his acts. Here is a home for the entire man, and the counsels, the affections, the example, and the interest of his better half, keep him from erratic courses, and from falling into a thousand temptations to which he would otherwise be exposed. Therefore, the friend to marriage is the friend to society, and to his country.

☞Many amusing anecdotes are related of the Rev. Joshua Brooks, of Manchester, England, a clergyman of irritable temper. Perhaps the following is the best: The churchyard was surrounded by a low parapet wall, to walk along which required nice balancing of the body, and was one of the favorite feats of the neighboring boys. The practice greatly annoyed Joshua, and one day, while reading the burial service at the grave-side, his eye caught a chimney-sweep walking on the wall. This caused the eccentric chaplain, by abruptly giving an order to the beadle, to make the following interpolation in the solemn words of the funeral service: "And I heard a voice from heaven, saying—knock that black rascal off the wall!"

☞A gentleman who recently put up at a log tavern in Wisconsin, was awakened by a young man who commenced a serenade thus:

"Oh Sally Rice,
I've called you twice,
And yet you lie and snore!
I pray you wake,
And see your Jake,
And ope to him the door; or the window, I don't care much which, for—
It makes but little difference
To either you or I—
Big pig, little pig,
Root hog, or die."

☞The expenses of the Government printing office last year were $1,683,712. That's what lump speeches cost—and stealings.

☞Western papers predict hard times "out there."

BITE OFF MY EARS.

At a social party, a man found himself in conversation with a nervous looking stranger. Pointing out to him a gentleman of inquiring turn of mind in another portion of the room, he said: "Do you see that man there? He is possessed with the idea that he must bite off strangers' ears, and it has caused a dreadful amount of trouble. I do not know whether he will show any symptoms to-night; but perceiving that you are a stranger, I deem it my duty to put you on your guard. Don't let him approach very near." The expression of horror that spread over the face of the nervous man clearly proved that he had the warning. A little later the benevolent informant got an opportunity to tell the inquiring man (pointing out the individual) he was a physical wonder, as a roaring noise could be heard proceeding from his ear by getting within eighteen inches of him. Our curious friend was struck with the unheard of phenomenon, and very properly began to work himself close enough for a personal investigation. The movement was seen by the nervous man, and great drops of apprehensive sweat oozed out from his brow and trickled down his cheeks. Nearer and nearer approached the one, and more terribly intense grew the horror of the other. The curious man was within an ace of the "roaring," when the agony of the "roarer" reached its crisis, and clenching his fist, he landed it between the "lookers" of the unfortunate searcher after physical wonders, shouting at the top of his voice:—"Bite off my ears, will you?" The effect of this on the astonished audience was very affecting.

A SUITABLE APOLOGY.

It is not often that we find hasty people willing to make the amende honorable, as was the individual mentioned in the following anecdote. A punctilious regard for the truth is much to be commended, and below we find a nice sense of honor on one side with a still nicer nicety on the other. A man said of a virago with a loud, masculine voice: "Confound that woman's throat! her voice will reach the fifth story of my house!" The woman hearing of the remark, insisted that her husband should call on the man, and demand either a retraction or an apology, and if the man would do neither, the husband was to chastise him.

Husband—"Sir, I am informed that you say my wife's voice is so loud and masculine it will reach the fifth story of any building. Did you not make that scandalous assertion?" (holding a whip significantly in view.)

Man—"Well, my dear sir, I can't say positively. I might, upon the impulse of the moment, and rather think I did say, five stories. Perhaps it is an exaggeration. It is pushing the thing pretty strong, I admit. I am willing, sir, now that I am cooler, to take off one story, but not another brick."

"Well," said the other, "that alters the case, but I should not have stood the five stories. It is agin natur."

SIMON SUGGS AND WIDOW FLASH.

Now, Sol., said Simon to Sol. Smith, his intimate friend, I will tell you how the lovely Julia treated me, if you will faithfully promise not to tell any person alive. You promise, do you? Well, I had been courting Julia assiduously for a year or more past, and never could bring matters to a close, so I determined to pluck up my courage, and have my fate decided at once. I therefore decked myself in my best bib and tucker, had my hair cut, my beard and moustache trimmed, and called on my dear Julia one bright morning in May, and after cooing, I was desirous of billing, but my heart failed me to make the attempt. I placed my hand on her shoulder and said, "Widow, this is the softest place I ever put my hand in the whole course of my life." "Indeed, Mr. Suggs," said she, "I will put it on a softer place." And Sol.—now you promise you won't tell anybody,—she took my hand from her shoulder, in her own soft, delicate and plump little hand, and put it right on the top of my head.

"Murmur Not."—Is it not a fact that professing Christians regard too little this injunction of the Apostle? I say "professing Christians," not because they are the only "complainers," but because, while professing to commit all things to the "keeping of a faithful Creator," they often deny virtually by their conversation that such is their faith, and seem to imply that the God of the Universe has let go the helm, or ceased to rule righteously. Is it not a dishonor to Him whose name we bear, that we find so much fault with the ordering of His providence even in this respect? His word has gone forth that "while the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, shall not cease." Let us take Him at His word.

☞A distinguished banker, charged with an immense amount of property during the great pecuniary pressure of 1837 and 1837, said: "I should have been a dead man had it not been for the Sabbath. Obliged to work from morning till night, through the whole week, I felt on Saturday afternoon as if I must have rest. It was like going into a dense fog. Everything looked dark and gloomy, as if nothing could

Monday Morning, Dec. 24, 1866.

BILL TO TERRITORIALIZE MARYLAND.

The State of Maryland having freed herself from the trammels of an infamous minority, is the object of especial hatred to the Radical Disunionists in Congress. Knowing that its minions can never regain power in that State by the ballot-box, the Rump Congress is seriously contemplating the entire destruction of the State Government. The old malignant, Frank Thomas, is said to have prepared a bill "to guarantee a Republican form of government to Maryland!" That is the high sounding title by which the Disunionists designate what would be despotism, pure and simple. The bill, as prepared, is said to be so framed as to deprive white men of the elective franchise and to confer it on all the negroes of the State. It is of a piece with Thaddeus Stevens' bill for reducing all the States of the South to a territorial condition. Should such a thing be attempted, we hope, with a cotemporary, the people of Maryland will stand firmly by their indisputable rights, and refuse to recognize the despotic rule of a set of men who have no more right to dictate to one State than to all the rest. Such a procedure would involve the destruction of the very form of free government, and no patriotic citizen could stand by and see the outrage perpetrated, without lending all his energies to prevent it.

There must be an end of Radical usurpation somewhere. It cannot be permitted to proceed unchecked. If the representatives of a minority faction persist in their revolutionary course, they must inevitably precipitate a conflict that will bring with it a day of retribution, in which the outrages they have perpetrated will be fully and terribly avenged.

NEGROES SENT NORTH.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says about 75 freedmen are sent North weekly by Brigadier General Charles H. Howard, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for the District of Columbia, and proper homes provided for them, where they are well cared for. In the cities of the North there are thousands of white men and women destitute of homes and out of employment; but the Radical philanthropists take no care of them. No one is paid to hunt up homes and employment for destitute whites, and the Government does not pay their fare to distant points throughout the country. The charity of Congress is exhausted upon "the wards of the nation," as the negroes are ostentatiously styled.

AWAITING THE SUPREME COURT.

The ingrate, Forney, through his Press and Chronicle, threatens the interference of Congress because the Judges of the Supreme Court have decided the case of Milligan, of Indiana, against the theories of the Radicals and in accordance with the constitution and laws of the land. Forney's attack is not only violent, it is vindictive and indecent. He declares that "treason has at last found a secure shelter" in the Supreme Court of the United States. The line of demarcation between the revolutionary Radicals and the country is daily becoming more distinct. If the masses are not utterly blinded they must soon discover that our free institutions will be completely destroyed by the fanatics now in power, unless they are checked. Even the Supreme Court of the United States will be made subject to the will of a crazy Congress, if these destructives have their way.

☞The Harrisburg correspondent of the Chambersburg Repository gives the following possible Radical candidates for the Senatorship from this State: Andrew G. Curtin, John Cessna, Thaddeus Stevens, I. W. Hall, Wm. D. Kelley, U. Mercur, Wm. B. Thomas, S. A. Purviance, M. Russel Thayer, Simon Cameron, John W. Forney, John H. Walker, Morton McMichael, Andrew Stewart, J. M. Broomall, A. K. McClure, Edward McPherson, John Scott, J. K. Moorhead, Harry White, Thomas Williams, W. W. Ketchum, Wm. H. Armstrong, H. D. Maxwell, G. A. Grow, G. W. Scofield, John Covode, Thomas E. Cochran, H. L. Cake, Lemuel Todd, James Pollock, J. F. Hartranft, John C. Kunkel, D. A. Finney. It will be seen by this large list that the devotion of the Radical leaders to the "loaves and fishes" keeps full pace with their progress in "great moral ideas." We cannot now predict who of these ambitious individuals will be chosen Senator; but are willing to wager our old hat, that neither McPherson, Cochran nor Todd will be the man.

☞Sumner introduced a bill, the other day, in his branch of the unlawful Rump, for the purpose of punishing persons who induce the emigration of free colored persons to foreign countries. This shows that the Radical party has already taken ground against negro colonization abroad. The leaders of that faction are determined, at all hazards, to keep the darkies in this country, in order to use them as a political lever. We may look, hereafter, for the placing of every sort of obstacle in the way of negro emigration and colonization, by the Radicals.

☞The House, on Thursday, on motion of Thaddeus Stevens, authorized the appointment of a select committee of seven to report a bill for the establishment of a system of free schools in the District of Columbia, from which no child over six years of age shall be excluded on account of race or color. An amalgamation scheme of like character is before the Senate Committee on the District, and will no doubt be reported favorably.

Negroes are not only to be allowed to vote, but negro children are to be forced into the white public schools! Can decent Republicans in Adams county longer endorse the disgusting and damnable doings of their party leaders in Congress?

☞Thaddeus Stevens says that peace does not exist, though proclaimed by the President. If so, then the war continues. And if the war is not at an end, then the claim of Congress to govern the Southern States as territories on the ground of conquest, is preposterous or premature.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

Congress has passed, and will send to the President for consideration, a bill conferring the right of suffrage upon the negroes of the District of Columbia. The bill will undoubtedly be vetoed, and as certainly be passed over the veto by two-thirds majorities in both branches of Congress. The leaders of the Radical party stated in debate that this measure is the model or pattern by which they intend to regulate the institutions of the States.

This bill was passed by the House of Representatives at its last session, but was suspended in the Senate until the elections of this year took place. The Democracy warned the people that the election of the Republican tickets would be construed into an approval of the measure. But the Republicans denied the issue, and polluted to the suspension in the Senate, where their majority is overwhelming, as evidence that it had not the sanction of their party.

Now, however, the mask of hypocrisy is laid aside, and the bill is pushed hastily through Congress with the support of the entire Republican party. The people of the country are thus authoritatively advised of the purpose of that party, and the doctrine of Negro Equality is openly avowed and proclaimed.

We agree with the Lancaster Intelligencer that it is now useless to recur to the arguments against negro suffrage. The mental and physical inferiority of the negro, his utter incapability for self-government, the degradation of the race, established by the fact that no negro community has ever emerged from barbarism, have been thoroughly discussed and canvassed before the people. If white Americans desire negroes to rule over them, they certainly have a right to gratify their taste; and now that the designs of the Republican party are revealed, the people will doubtless decide upon them according to their judgment.

Negro Equality is now, and will remain, until determined by the people, the leading issue between the two great parties of the country. When stripped of disguise, and presented in naked deformity to our voters, we doubt not that they will turn from the forbidding project with loathing and disgust.

FALLING INTO LINE.

One by one the different organizations of the Republican party are falling into line on the question of negro suffrage. A Republican cotemporary says that the Union League of Baltimore passed a resolution declaring themselves to be in favor of it on Friday night week. The Union League of Philadelphia is expected to take action in the course of a few days. But whether it does so or not is immaterial, as it is known to be fully up to the mark. The mask which the party wore during the late elections has been boldly thrown aside. They cannot humbug the masses again.

IMPEACHMENT.

The Washington correspondent of the Age, in his letter of Tuesday, says:

Prominent Republican members of the House think there is no doubt of the final passage of Ashley's resolution to raise a committee for the purpose of getting up a bill of impeachment against the President, and I hear, also, that the Judiciary Committee are in favor of a bill to suspend the functions of any officer of the government pending his trial on a bill of impeachment. By the way, it is said that Ashley's resolution of yesterday attracted no attention whatever at the White House.

☞The Radicals mean to alter our form of government by agitating upon the negro question. They will acknowledge no stopping point in their march of invasion. The negro free, and his civil rights amply protected, will not appease this party of fanatics. Even the adoption of an amendment giving the free ballot to colored men, is not sufficient. The States must be destroyed, the President impeached and deposed, and a minority Congress, representing but a portion of the States, elevated into the seat of supreme power. This is the end sought to be attained. For this Congress is upon the war path, and to accomplish this all the interests of white men are overlooked or treated as of comparatively little importance. But there must be a point where reason and patriotism will resume their empire over the minds of men in this country. The merchants, and manufacturers and business men will not always agree to place the interests of a few negroes over and above all the thousand questions affecting the honor and standing of the nation abroad, and the welfare of millions of white men at home. Truth must conquer in the end, and it is the duty of all who love the country and its institutions to keep the truth constantly before the people.—Age.

☞The New York Herald says the removal of Adjutant General Schouler, of Massachusetts, was on account of his opposition to General Butler's nomination for Congress. He intends publishing letters, it is said, that will connect General Butler's name with several profitable speculations during the war, with which the public are not generally acquainted.

What! more swindles by Butler, the high priest of the Loyal Radicals? Are we never to hear the last of his thieving? Must each day add new crimes to make him the more fitting representative of "the party of great moral ideas?" No wonder he is popular as a candidate for President with them. He is the very man of all others in the country who would suit them. They are right in going it strong for the Beast.

☞Thad Stevens says he never believed that Jefferson Davis could be tried for treason, and he does not believe he was guilty of treason. "His offence," says Thad, "was that of a belligerent, not of a traitor." The object of the "great commoner," in taking this position, is to secure a recognition of his territorial scheme. He wants to let Davis escape, under his theory that secession was successfully completed and the Union dissolved, in order to increase the strength of the Radical party by keeping the ten Southern States unrepresented in Congress. To keep the Radical faction in office and power, he is willing to let "the arch traitor" escape punishment. This is exactly his position.

☞The "dead duck" thinks he won't be a candidate for United States Senator. Everybody else thought so long ago.

NEWS AND OTHER ITEMS.

☞The iron-plated frigate "New Ironsides," which occupied so prominent a position in the operations against Charleston, during the war, was destroyed by fire, at League Island, in the Delaware river, yesterday morning a-week—whether by accident or design, is not known. She was built at Philadelphia in 1863, and cost over $1,500,000 as she went to sea.

London, Dec. 17—Noon.—The Times of this morning contains a telegram from Berlin, in which the writer says that the Pope of Rome has been officially invited to visit the United States.

☞A mother and two children living in Newark, Del., were burned to death, on Thursday, the 6th inst., by the ignition of coal oil.

☞A terrible tragedy occurred at 215 Division street, New York, on Monday night, the 10th inst. A fire broke out about 12 o'clock, midnight, in a tenement house and communicated to a kerosene oil store next door, and though the flames were stopped before they reached the second story, their violence among the petroleum was so great as to send up a dense volume of smoke and vapor, which fatally suffocated nine persons sleeping in the rooms above.

☞Col. Forney has written a letter withdrawing from the Senatorial contest, and urging the election of Mr. Stevens. If in six months effort, Col. Forney could not get any votes for himself, how many can he transfer to Mr. Stevens?

☞Col. Fletcher, of Missouri, has organized a large militia force, with which he is engaged in driving out of the State every body who is not Radical enough.

☞On Thursday week, Caleb Lyon, of Lyonsdale, New York, formerly Governor of Idaho, reported to the Police Headquarters of Washington City, that he was robbed of $47,000 on the train which arrived from New York about half past five o'clock that morning. He stated that he had his money in his belt around his waist, but that becoming uncomfortable, he took it off and laid it under his head, after which he fell asleep. The belt was found by the loser, empty and near his seat in the car.

☞The people of the District of Columbia intend to call a mass indignation meeting to protest against being placed under the domination of lazy and vagrant niggers.

☞Every Rump Disunionist who voted for negro suffrage in the District of Columbia would do the same for his own State if he did not fear the vengeance of his "constituents."

☞The Harrisburg Telegraph, a Radical howler, makes an important admission in these words: "The Liberian colony has virtually proved a failure." The Liberian government, our readers know, is owned, controlled and run exclusively by niggers.

☞A Canada paper says that John H. Surratt was on his way from Canada to Washington when he heard of the assassination, and that thereupon he immediately returned. It further affirms that the original intention was to carry off the President and that Booth changed it himself, without Surratt's knowledge. Surratt stoutly affirms his mother's innocence.

The Stroudsburg Bank.—Rumors unfavorable to the character of this Institution have been circulating in business circles for a month or longer. The truth of the matter seems to be that the Bank is minus fifty thousand dollars and neither the Cashier nor any of the Directors are able to give the public any satisfactory explanation of where this amount has gone to. The Institution still does business under the old State laws, having never been converted into a National Bank.—Allentown Democrat.

☞Two sets of Masonic jewels, stolen from lodges in Mississippi, and the charter of Eastport Lodge No. 94, were found in a pawnbroker's shop in Indianapolis, Ind., lately, and have been forwarded by the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Illinois to the care of the Grand Lodge of Mississippi.

☞In Albany, a few days since, a little boy by the name of Hogan was playing among some empty barrels with his comrades, when he got into one of the barrels, feet foremost, and his companions raised the barrel upon its head. In this position he was left for some time. When removed he was taken to his home, where he died a few hours afterward.

Robbery.—One of the most adroit and at the same time, audacious robberies was committed on one of our highways, a short time since, about six miles from this place, in West Manheim township, that has ever come to our knowledge. The facts, as we have been reliably informed, are these: Mr. John Wagner, living about ten miles from town, near the York road, in Old Manheim township, on his return home from Hanover, saw a man on foot a short distance ahead of him, in the road. On coming up to him, the person seemed to be in distress and asked Mr. Wagner to take him in the wagon, saying that he was very sick and desired to go further on his journey that evening, and that he procured medicine from one of our doctors in town, and when arriving near Sherman's Church, the stranger took a vial out of one of his pockets, requesting Mr. Wagner to smell it. Mr. W. not thinking anything wrong in this simple request, smelled at the vial, whereupon he became senseless, and on his recovery found himself lying in a woods and robbed of all his money, amounting to several dollars—he having paid out most of his money while in town. On the following day Mr. W. found his horse and buggy in the woods some distance from the Church. The feigned medicine, it is presumed, was chloroform, used by the scoundrel for the purpose of robbing. We would caution the people to be careful whom they trust, as the country is full of all sorts of rogues, ready to swindle the unwary in all sorts of ways.—Hanover Citizen.

Terrible Calamity.—Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 19.—A terrible calamity occurred here this morning. The confectionary of Joseph Specht, No. 39 Madison street, took fire between three and four o'clock. About twenty-five persons were asleep in the third and fourth stories of the building. The fire, which originated in the cellar from some unknown cause, filled the upper stories with smoke and the fumes of burning charcoal, while the flames in part cut off egress by the stairs. Fourteen persons were suffocated in their rooms or lost their lives in attempting to escape by leaping from the windows.

PUBLIC MEETING.—The citizens of Adams county interested in the passage of an Act for the relief of those whose property was destroyed or taken by the armies during the rebel invasion, are requested to meet at the Court-House, in Gettysburg, on NEW YEAR'S DAY, at 1 o'clock, P. MANY CITIZENS.

TOWN AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

CHRISTMAS will occur to-morrow.—Welcome, thrice welcome, the season of love and gaiety, the occasion of the renewal of old ties and friendships, and above all, the anniversary of the day which gave to the world a Saviour and Redeemer, and thus bespoke peace on earth and good will to men.

The celebration of Christmas is of very ancient origin. It was inaugurated by the early Christians immediately after the commencement of the Christian era. It was then held exclusively as a religious festival in commemoration of the nativity of the Saviour. It derives its name from the appellative Christ having been added to the name of Jesus, to express that he was the Messiah or The Annointed. In the Eastern primitive church, Christmas and Epiphany were decmed but one and the same feast, and consequently all the intermediate time between the twenty-fourth of December and the seventh of January was duly observed.

ALMS-HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—At the last meeting of the Directors of the Poor, they re-appointed Jonas Johns, Esq., Steward; Dr. J. W. C. O'Neal, Physician; Wm. McClean, Esq., Counsel; C. Daugherty, Treasurer; and H. G. Wolf, Clerk. These gentlemen performed their duties well and faithfully during the past year, and their re-appointment is a deserved compliment to them.

EXHIBITION.—The Franklin Literary Association will give its Sixth Annual Exhibition, at Mummasburg, on Saturday evening next, Dec. 29th. Doors to open at 6 o'clock, and performances to commence at 7. There will be Vaudevils, Dialogues, Lectures, Orations, Essays, &c., to conclude with an "extravaganza entertainment" by the "National Ethiopian Opera Troupe." Don't fail to attend.

WINTER.—Friday morning last was very cold—the coldest of the season. Buehler's thermometer indicated 4 degrees below zero, Powers's 8 degrees below, and Jacobs's 12 degrees below. An old inhabitant says, "now look out for a big snow." We shall see.

A PRESENT.—Mr. A. W. Flemming, of this place, has presented us a very large Sweet Pumpkin, for which he is sincerely thanked. We are thus assured of pumpkin pies for the holidays, and those who "know what's what," will agree with us that "they are not hard to take." "Who's the next customer?"

—Christmas prospects still brightening. A lady friend of the family contributes a basket of splendid Apples—monster "Talpehockens." Thanks!—thanks!

THE NATIONAL CEMETERY.—At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Soldiers' National Cemetery, held at the Continental Hotel, in Philadelphia, week before last, David Wills, Esq., of this place, was re-elected President; John R. Bartlett, of Rhode Island, Secretary; and S. R. Russell, of this place, Treasurer. Last year's Executive Committee was continued. The next meeting will be held in Gettysburg, in June.

The reports of the President and Executive Committee show that nearly all the work upon the Cemetery, exclusive of the monument, has been finished. A contract was entered into, in May last, with J. G. Batterson, of Hartford, Conn., for the building of the monument, for the sum of $47,500. It is to be built according to the original design adopted by the board two years ago. The shaft will be of white granite and the statuary of Italian weather marble. The work has been commenced, the granite work at Westerly, Rhode Island, and the statuary at Rome, Italy, under the supervision of the American Artist, Rogers. Ten thousand dollars has been paid on account of the work on the monument, and the balance is payable in installments as the work progresses. The monument is to be finished by July 1, 1868.

There was $50,727 64 paid the treasurer during the year by the different States, including the balance on hand at the last settlement. There was $15,475 10 paid out during the year, leaving a balance on hand of $35,252 04, of which $30,000 is invested in United States 7-30 bonds. The sum of $18,888 74 yet remains to be paid into the treasury by several of the States to make their proportionate share of the contributions.

STATUE.—We learn that the committee of the First Army Corps having the matter in charge, have decided to place a bronze statue of Gen. Reynolds in the National Cemetery, and not on the spot where he fell. The statue is to be six or seven feet high, with a base of nearly the same height. The triangle formed by several avenues near the gate, in front, has been selected for the site.

ROBBERY AT NEW OXFORD.—Mr. Franklin Martin, of New Oxford, opened a drawer on Sunday last, in which he kept his papers and money, when he discovered that his 7-30 Government Bonds and Promissory Notes, amounting in all to $1,100, were gone. Also, all his wife's jewelry, among which was a watch and other articles. The drawer had been unlocked, the contents taken, and then locked again. It is not known definitely when it occurred, or by whom the theft was committed.—Star.

SAD ACCIDENT.—A few days ago, Mr. F. Clunk and lady arrived at the residence of their friend, Mr. Levi Lawrence, near Mount Rock, Adams county, and whilst getting off the carriage, the horse frightened at some of the baggage about being taken off, and ran some distance, upsetting the carriage, and dragging Mrs. Clunk along the road. Mrs. C. was taken up in an insensible state by her husband and friends, and conveyed to the house, where medical aid was called to assistance. At the time of taking her up, Mrs. C. was supposed to be dead, but we are glad to be able to state that she is rapidly recovering, though her injuries were of a very serious nature.—Hanover Citizen.

INSPECTOR.—Mr. George A. Codori, of this place, has been appointed Whiskey Inspector at Rhodes' Distillery, the only one now in operation in this county.

CALL!—John Gruel, next door to the Eagle Hotel, has for sale any quantity of Christmas articles. Give him a call—an early call—and call all the time.

☞Both Houses of Congress have adjourned until the 3d of January.

IMPORTANT TO SOME PEOPLE.—Not to all. Such as have paid the printer as promptly as he has served them, (many thanks!) need not read this—not a word of it is intended for them. To those in arrears, however, whether for advertising, job work or subscription, we must again appeal, and can assure them that never were we more IN EARNEST. To pay for paper, ink, type, labor, and a hundred other matters entering into the publication of a widely-circulated newspaper, requires the handling of a good deal of money—especially in high times, as these still are to printers, paper, &c., being nearly as dear as during the war. To whom shall the printer look for the means to carry on his business, but to those who have the benefit of it? It is so in every other branch, and there is no reason why ours should be an exception to the rule. Those, then, indebted on our books are again urged to deal with us as they would desire others to deal with them. PAY PROMPTLY.

To the call made two months ago, hardly one in forty responded. Many, no doubt, supposed that it was a mere stereotyped matter—that we did not mean half we said—and that if they failed to pay, it would make little difference to us or anybody else. If they so thought, never were men more mistaken. We needed what was due us then, and what did not come, is needed worse now for the delay.

We shall soon make out bills, and send them to those in arrears. Will not many save us this trouble by remitting at once—within the present week, or, at least, within the present year? To get along at all, we must have our own—and if after a reasonable time, those who owe us no heed, to this call should find more summary measures adopted to convince them of our earnestness, they will have nobody to blame but themselves. WE MUST HAVE MONEY.

WOOD!—WOOD!—WOOD!—A number of our subscribers have promised us Wood, in payment of their subscriptions. Will they please bring it immediately? It is needed.

A CAR BURNT—A BOY PERISHES IN THE FLAMES.—A car belonging to Mr. Robert Warner, of Hagerstown, standing on the sidling of the Cumberland Valley railroad in this place, was burned on Sunday morning last, about one o'clock, taking fire from a stove in the cabin. The most horrible part of the affair is that a son of Mr. Warner, about fifteen years of age, who was sleeping in the car, perished in the flames. When the fire was first discovered it had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the poor boy, and very probably he was dead before any person arrived at the scene of the conflagration. His body was recovered on Sunday morning, burned in a most terrible manner, part of one of his legs, one of his arms and his nose being burned off. The car was loaded with marketing, and the contents, consisting of butter, lard, &c., helped to increase the fury of the flames.—Chambersburg Repository.

☞In the Indiana, or Milligan conspiracy, the judges of the Supreme Court have unanimously agreed that Milligan should be released from military custody, and sent to the civil tribunals; that the Court will issue a writ of habeas corpus to order his release, and that the Military Commission had no right to try him. This is simply giving an official dignity to the proper answers to questions which justice and public opinion long ago decided.

A National Convention Proposed.—A meeting of the Connecticut State Democratic Committee was held at Hartford on Thursday. It was resolved to call a State Convention on January 8, at New Haven, to consider the revolutionary proceedings of the present Congress, and recommend the holding of a National Convention of the thirty-six States at New York, to consider the same subject.

☞A Republican paper says there is great dissatisfaction among all parties in Missouri concerning Gov. Fletcher's course in calling out the militia. It is only natural that such should be the case. He is one of the most unprincipled hounds in the country, and does not command the respect of decent men of any party in Missouri. Even the Radicals feel that the State is disgraced and injured by having such a wretch in the Gubernatorial Chair.

☞The Radicals are using all sorts of arts to increase the circulation of their meanest and blackest journals—the New York Tribune, Forney's Press, Harrisburg Telegraph, &c. Reeking with political poison, they can be acceptable only to disunionists and consolidationists. Friends of your country, be on your guard!

☞The Doylestown Democrat in noticing the call for the Boys in Blue to assemble at Harrisburg to witness the inauguration of Governor Geary, asks wether Geary will care about seeing the "boys in blue" whom he denounced as "shysters, cowards and hospital-bummers." We should think not.

☞A negro has been advertised to be sold in Anne Arundel county, Maryland, for a crime of which he has been legally convicted, and the Radicals in Congress are kicking up a terrible row over the matter.

☞The negroes in Boston are not as easily managed as the Radical leaders hoped. Previous to the recent election, a number of ambitious darkies wanted Radical nominations, but failing to get them, they bolted and voted for the Democratic candidate for Mayor. Their refractory conduct alarmed the Radical leaders, but with profuse promises to "make it all right with them," the difficulty has been healed for the present. The Radicals can't afford to disagree with "brother" Sambo.

☞There are about 30,000 darkies now in and around Washington City, one-half of whom are thieves and vagrants. These are to be the future sovereigns (?) at the Federal Capital. What a shame and disgrace!

☞The Southern States are constantly "insulting" the Radical Rump because they refuse to put the halter of negro suffrage around their necks.

☞The borough authorities of Columbia have started a movement for the rebuilding of the bridge across the Susquehanna at that point. It is much needed.

THE HOLIDAYS.—E. H. Minnigh & Bro., in Chambersburg street, opposite the College Church, have laid in a large stock of goods intended for the Holidays, and invite the attention of the public thereto. It embraces, of course, all sorts of confections, fruits, nuts, &c., with an almost endless variety of toys. They have something to please the thousand different tastes of the little ones, with an assortment which they flatter themselves will be attractive to grown up folks. Give them a call. Their goods cannot but give satisfaction, whilst their prices are much lower than last year, and must be equally satisfactory.

Teachers desiring to make presents to their schools, as well as the trade, will be accommodated at the lowest possible figures. 4t

☞The Democratic Convention of Kentucky, which met at Louisville, on Saturday week, adopted, among other resolutions, one denouncing in strong terms the revolutionary designs of the majority now in power in Congress at Washington, and urgently recommending the call of a National Convention to meet at Louisville on the 1st of May next.

☞Gen. Grant and the "rebel" Dick Taylor own a Georgia gold mine in partnership, it is said. If so, Grant certainly needs reconstructing.

To owners of Horses and Cattle.

Tobias' Derby Condition Powders are warranted superior to any others, or no pay, for the cure of Distemper, Worms, Bots, Coughs, Hide-bound, Colic, &c., in Horses; and Colds, Coughs, Loss of Milk, Black Tongue, Horn Distemper, &c., in Cattle. These Powders were formerly put up by Simpson I. Tobias, son of Dr. Tobias, and, since his death, the demand has been so great for them, that Dr. Tobias has continued to manufacture them. They are perfectly safe and innocent; no need of stopping the working of your animals. They increase the appetite, give a fine coat, cleanse the stomach and urinary organs; also increase the milk of cows. Try them, and you will never be without them. Hiram Woodruff, the celebrated trainer of trotting horses, has used them for years, and recommends them to his friends. Col. Pinto, P. Bush, of the Jerome Race Course, Fordham, N. Y., would not use them until he was told of what they are composed, since which he is never without them. He has over 20 running horses in his charge, and for the last three years has used no other medicine for them. He has kindly permitted me to refer any one to him. Over 1,500 other references can be seen at the depot. Sold by Druggists and Saddlers. Price 25 cents per box. Depot, 56 Cortlandt Street, New York. [Nov. 19, 1866. 7w

CURE OF CRICK IN THE BACK, AND LUMBAGO.

LYONS, N. Y., July 4, 1862.

Messrs. ALLCOCK & CO.: Please send me a dollar's worth of your plasters. They have cured me of a crick in my back, which has troubled me for some time, and now my father is going to try them for difficulty about his heart.

L. H. SHERWOOD.

Dr. Green, No. 263 Broadway, New York, informs us he sold, on Monday, June 23d, 1862, two plasters to a young woman suffering very severely from lumbago. On Thursday she called to get two more for a friend, and then stated how the two she had purchased on Monday had relieved her immediately after putting them on, and cured her in two days of a most distressing pain in her back and loins.

Ayer's Pills.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some act of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors, purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and deranges its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and derangement. While in this condition, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint is also true in many of the deep-seated and long-standing diseases to which we are liable, and which require the most powerful remedies we can employ. The same purgative effect that these Pills will produce in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the human constitution is subject. A mo lerate self excitement, without subsequent depression, and a speedy cure may be relied on.

To Married Ladies it is especially suited. It will, in short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity.

CAUTION.—These Pills should not be taken by Females during the FIRST THREE MONTHS of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics, and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed; and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution.

Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved.

Sold by all Druggists. Price One Dollar, per bottle.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—It is the Life of every valuable Medicine to be Counterfeited. Be cautious, therefore, and see that the letters "P. & M." are blown in the bottle, and that each wrapper bears the FAC SIMILE of the signatures of J. C. BALDWIN & CO., and T. DOCTOR MOSES. Without which none are genuine.

No. 2 Dollar, with Eighteen cents for Postage, can be sent to any part of the World, by addressing J. C. BALDWIN & CO., 3 Astor House, New York.

Teas! Teas! Teas!

TEAS! TEAS! TEAS!

TEAS! TEAS! TEAS!

WHOLESALED at 5 PER CENT. above actual cost of importation.

We take pleasure in offering to the trade the following popular TEAS, in original and 30 pound packages. Our prices will be found lower than those of any other house in the trade, with the exception, however, of those who make it a business to buy and sell stained and otherwise damaged Teas, and palm them off as sound. We warrant our Teas sound and straight, and deal in no others, and dealers, to be convinced of this, need only give us a trial. We sell our Teas at the small advance of 5 per cent. on the actual cost of importation, believing that large trade with small profits is more advantageous to us as well as to the public. We are selling the following

TEAS IN ORIGINAL PACKAGES:

OOLONG, 85, 95, $1 10, $1 20 per pound.

SOUCHONG, 80, 85, 95, $1 00, $1 10, $1 20 per pound.

YOUNG HYSON, 85, $1 00, $1 10, $1 20, $1 40, $1 50, $1 70 per pound.

GUNPOWDER, $1 25, $1 30, $1 45, $1 55, $1 75 per pound.

Also, Twankay, Hyson Skin, Japan and other Teas, and the ruling market prices.

In order that buyers may readily compute the amount of funds to be remitted in ordering packages of Teas, we would state Young Hyson averages 65 pounds to the package; Oolong 40 pounds; Souchong, 42 pounds; Gunpowder, 70 pounds.

To enable buyers who wish to keep the different lines of Teas, but have not a trade to warrant their buying full packages, we have, for their accommodation, put up the following original Teas in

30 POUND PACKAGES,

And sell these packages as follows:

OOLONG, $25 50, $28 50, $33 and $36 per package.

SOUCHONG, $24, $25 50, $28 50, $30, $33 and $36 per package.

YOUNG HYSON, $25 50, $30, $33, $36, $42, $45 and $51 per package.

GUNPOWDER, $37 50, $40 50, $43 50, $46 50 and $54 50 per package.

We warrant all our Teas as represented, and if parties are not perfectly satisfied that the Teas purchased of us are cheaper than they can buy elsewhere, they can be returned within thirty days, at our expense, and the money will be refunded.

At the Old Business.

LEVIS KUMLERIANT has re-commenced the TAILORING business, in Chambersburg street, between Washington and West streets, Gettysburg, and asks a share of the custom of the public. His long experience in the business enables him to guarantee good fits and good work, whilst the latest fashions will be consulted in cutting whenever desired. No effort will be spared to render satisfaction, and he feels sure that all who patronize him will be satisfied. His prices for work are as low as they can possibly be to afford him an economical living, and no one could in reason ask them to be any less. He asks his old friends to give him a call, as well as the public generally.

House-keepers and others should give him a call before buying elsewhere, as he is convinced that he has the best stock in town, and that no one can go away disappointed.

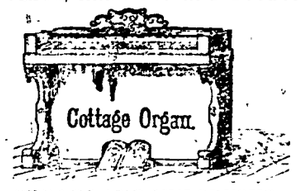
ESTEY'S CELEBRATED

COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR



ORGANS AND MELODEONS.

These Instruments stand unrivalled by any thing found in this Country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in reed Tone, pronounce them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect of this stop, we are at loss for language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchant the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

☞ BRASS BANDS supplied with instruments and music at reasonable terms.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

☞ Instructions given both in Vocal and Instrumental Music, at our rooms, and at pupils' homes, either to individuals or classes, on reasonable terms.

The Madonna,	26 x 34

They have deemed expedient to offer them to their friends and the public at one dollar and fifty cents each, the price heretofore having been two dollars each, and for the purpose of stimulating the getting up of Clubs, they have determined to reward premiums to the getters up of the Clubs, and in addition thereto to distribute amongst the subscribers the sum of $20,000 in money and paintings, as soon as the sale shall have reached 100,000 engravings. As it is our intention to advertise very extensively, and as the engravings are well known throughout the whole country, we have no doubt, that with the low price we charge for them, and the exertion which will be put forth by our numerous friends, the number will be reached in a short time. As soon as it is reached, the subscribers, through their Club Agents, will be notified by a circular letter from us, naming the time and method of distribution.

CLUB RATES.

Single Engraving $1.50 each,—by mail, free.

For $5 we will send 3 Eng. and 2 to the Club Ag't.

Any person may get up Clubs and forward the amount either by Express, Sight Draft, Post Office Order or in a registered letter and in all cases the Engravings will be immediately sent, and for each engraving a numbered certificate and receipt will be enclosed in the package.

C. O. D. ORDERS.—Persons wishing to send for Engravings and pay the Express Co. when they are received, will be required to send with their order $2 to $5, according to it amount, and this will be credited on their bill.

Two hundred elegant Oil Paintings, richly framed, Interior Views, at $50 each,			10,000
			$50,000

The AMERICAN ARTISTS' UNION would add that these premiums are to be considered only in the light of a free gift to their patrons, as the Engravings are furnished them below their market value, but as the cost of engravings, after the plates are procured, is very trifling, they can easily afford to make the distribution, large as it is.

We trust that our numerous friends through out the country and Canadas will use their utmost exertions, so that if possible, the distribution may be made soon, and it can be done if they are at all active. Ladies have often made excellent Club Agents for us, and we solicit their kind efforts, which will not go unrewarded. Let one or more energetic persons in every town and village in the country commence as soon as they see this, and get up as large a Club as possible. By so doing they will be the means of introducing elegant engravings into families, and thus aid in cultivating a taste for the beautiful and refined.

THE

IS A PROTECTED SOLUTION OF THE

Protoxide of Iron,

a new discovery in medicine which STRIKES AT THE ROOT OF DISEASE, by supplying the Blood with its VITAL PRINCIPLE, OR LIFE ELEMENT—IRON.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing

DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, DROPSY, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, BOILS, Nervous Affection, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in A BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD, or accompanied by IMPURITY, or A LOW STATE OF THE SYSTEM.

Being free from alcohol in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an IRON CONSTITUTION.

DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY.

From the Venerable ex-Governor Scott, D. D.

DUNHAM, Canada East, March 24, 1865.

* * * "I am a confirmed Dyspeptic of more than 25 years' standing."

* * * "I have been so wonderfully benefitted in the short weeks during which I have used a Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself of the reality. People who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me."

One of the most DISTINGUISHED JURISTS in New England writes to a friend as follows:

"I have tried the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a NEW MAN of me; infused into my system new vigor and energy; I am no longer tremulous and debilitated, as when you last saw me, but strong-hearted, and with larger capacity for labor mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years."

An EMINENT DIVINE of Boston, says:

"I have been using the PERUVIAN SYRUP for some time past it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, activity of muscle."

☞THOUSANDS have been changed by the use of this remedy; from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

A pamphlet of 32 pages, containing certificates of cures and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen, and others, will be sent FREE to any address.

☞See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in glass.
